

PSC350

Put down the drill and securely strap your TV directly to a column or pillar. PSC350 pillar TV mount features fabric straps instead of mechanical fasteners for a non-permanent installation that can quickly be removed with no damage. A full-motion articulating arm provides swivel and extension in places where traditional TV wall mounts cannot be used. Silicone padding, and a ratcheting system integrated directly into the mount prevent potential scratches or marking that could be caused by direct metal contact. A comprehensive cable management solution is included, featuring a white cable sleeve and matching cable ties, allowing you to route cables to the backside of your column for a seamless look. Outfit your luxury condominium or modern workspace with the simplest, no drill column TV mounting solution available.

TECHNICAL ILLUSTRATIONS

NO DRILL NEEDED

Fabric straps wrap around columns or pillars between 10" and 48" in diameter for a secure attachment without the need to drill.

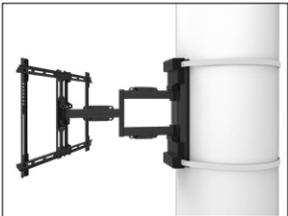

HIDDEN CABLES

An included white cable sleeve and matching cable ties blend in with the white fabric strap to give you a seamless look while routing cables to the back of your column.

FULL MOTION

Featuring tilt, swivel, and extension capabilities, the PSC350's fully articulating arm allow you to angle your TV perfectly towards your viewing position while avoiding glare.

NON-MARKING INSTALLATION

Silicone padding on the leading edge of the column plate, and a ratcheting system that is integrated into the mount prevent direct metal contact lessening the chance of scratching or marking the column.

RATCHET COVERS

Sleek covers hide mechanical components from sight giving you a clean look that improves the aesthetics in your luxury condominium or modern workspace.
